

Open Book Brushwork Class

Marjon's Ceramics, Friday March 20, 2020

Please read this supply list carefully and follow our directions. This is a unique class and to enhance your classroom and learning experience we are making some changes in our Open Book Brushwork Class.

- Class size is limited to 14 people.
- To see more pictures of the projects you might wish to complete, go to www.Davidhoff.com click on "Shopping" and under "Our Products" click on "Packets".
- At least 5 days before class please advise David Hoff via davidhoffceramics@gmail.com or Sharon Gonzales via skg52@pacbell.net of the projects you wish to complete: Before class we will email you the packet for your project. Download the information and bring to class.
- During class there is time to complete one to two projects depending on difficulty of the chosen project.

If you wish to bring in your own design, I will use all of my skills to help you complete the project, however please keep in mind your abilities and know that I too have artistic limitations.

Here are few pictures to choose from:

Please, have 1 to 2 pieces of 04 bisque for decorating.

Students need to bring the usual supplies for a seminar; water bowl, paper towels, paper cups, pencil, practice paper, scissors and heavy duty plastic page projector.

Be sure to have a selection of Shaders, Rounds, Liners to complete desired project. Specific brushes are not listed since each student will be working on their individual selection.

Class will start at 9:00 and will run until 4:30 with a 45-minute lunch. Please arrive by 8:45 a.m.

Please purchase supplies from Marjon Ceramics.
