

Open Book Brushwork Class

Marjon Ceramics

Friday November 2nd 2018

This unique class allows you the participant a chance to complete almost any piece in David's Seminar Collection. This is your chance to complete a piece that you may have missed or a project you needed more hands on guidance. Participants can complete one to two projects during the session depending on the degree of difficulty of the project selected.

Full Day

Half Day

We have a variety of techniques that you can choose from. The pictures above are just a few of the many projects you can choose from. Go to www.Davidhoff.com

Please, have 1 to 2 pieces of 04 bisque for decorating.

Students need to bring the usual supplies for a seminar; water bowl, paper towels, paper cups, pencil, practice paper, scissors and heavy duty plastic page projector.

Be sure to have a selection of Shaders, Rounds, Liners to complete desired project. Specific brushes are not listed since each student will be working on their individual selection.

Class will start at 9:00 and will run until 4:30 with a 45-minute lunch.
Please purchase supplies from Marjon Ceramics.
