MARJON CERAMICS INC. – JULY/AUGUST 2013 NEWSLETTER

New Coyote Glazes!

This new product line is a two part process with a VERY unique result you have to see to believe. Layering their undercoat glaze with their special overcoat glaze results in this beautiful Oil Spot look!

New Duncan Glazes!

Duncan's new line of glazes is food safe and non-toxic. They're also stunning and distinctive! Add as small touches for dramatic results. Or fill broader areas with these shimmering glazes for a dazzling finish!

CLAY OLYMPICS

SATURDAY, OCT. 26th, 2013

Ahoy Mates. This year's theme at the fun filled Clay Olympics is "Potters of the Clay-ribbean". Scrounge ye up some pirate rags and join the party. Watch the Potter's News page of our website for more information. Maybe this is your year to compete!

Empty Bowls Workshop

Join us at Marjon for an empty bowls workshop on Friday, September 20th, Saturday the 21st and Saturday the 28th. On the 20th and the 21st we will be throwing, trimming and hand building bowls. On the 28th we will be glazing the bisque fired bowls. The clay, glaze and firing will be provided and there is no fee for this workshop. All are welcome to participate even if you have little or no experience, there will be lots to do. All the beautiful bowls will be donated to Waste Not in order to raise money to feed the hungry.

Please call Marjon and let us know what day and time you would like to participate on any of the three days so that we can reserve your seat. Space is limited.
